

AGENDA

The Freedom of Information Law 2007 and its impact on the public sector

4:00-5:30pm

Wednesday September 26, 2007

Aston Ruddy Centre, Cayman Brac

Chair – Mr. Ernie Scott, District Commissioner

1. Greetings from Mr. James Watler, President CISCO (5 minutes)
2. Presentation on the new FOI Law – What do civil servants need to know? –Mrs. Carole Excell, FOI Coordinator (25 minutes)
3. Questions (10 minutes)
4. The value and basic principles behind FOI -Ms. Laura Neuman, FOI International Consultant (25 minutes)
5. Questions (10 minutes)
6. Refreshments

You hold the key to opening the doors of government.
It is therefore important that we get your input as you prepare to be the stewards of government information.
Please fill out the form below after the presentation and drop it in the box at the door on your way out.
Thank you,
Freedom of Information Unit

(Please tick the appropriate box)

	Strongly Agree	Agree	Disagree	Strongly Disagree
I have a good idea of what FOI means.
FOI means the public can see all government documents.
FOI will change the way I go about my daily tasks.
I need special training to be part of FOI.
FOI is a good thing.

Give three words that describe FOI:

Any concerns?

What more would you want to know about FOI?

NOTE: This questionnaire is entirely confidential